Prices Decline Easily, Under the Influence of Persistent Selling of Stocks.

New York, Aug. 20.-There was more sellstocks this morning of the same ter as that of yesterd_y and little rewas offered. Prices in consequence leasily during the morning, and efdeclined easily during the morning, and effective inroads were made upon the sharp advances from the low level of the year which had been achieved last week. The reaction has run to about 6 points in Rock Island and Amaigamated, which were the late leaders of the upward movement and which have, in turn, led the downward movement. The very largs volume of trading in Rock Island at the top level crading i inroads were made upon the sharp ces from the low level of the year FEARS AROUSED. ceeding and the extent of the speculative commitments which were being made seemed to arouse apprehensions of renewed entanglements which the coming requirements upon the money market might make hazardous. Special significance was attached to the drop of 2% in Amalgamated Copper, of 2 points in St. Paul and 4 points in Consolidated Gas, owing to the popular conception in Wall street that the course of these particular stocks represents the attitude of Standard Oil capitalists in the market and on the financial situation.

The money situation is carefully watched from day to day for the development of the the interior demand for currency. Shipments to the interior have been on a larger scale this week than last, and the balence may turn against New York at any time. Call-lear rates continue very easy, but the time-money market is hardening appreciably. The banks point out that it is their purpose to conserve their resources for regular commercial needs, and the quoted rates represent the terms for those purposes. Rates otherwise are a matter of private agreement.

In the native department the arrivals were more liberal than they have been for a couple of weeks, and a better opportunity was given to buyers to secure their offerings. The early part of the week was on a steady basis, but later days have not been so strong. As a rule, the quality has been very plain, which has deterred buyers from operating to a great extent and has been responsible for much of the weakness, as it was generally admitted that with better horses the demand would have been brisker and the prices pretty much in line with what they have been lately, for there was a very good attendance of buyers and all seemed anxious to secure good borses. Some of the demand came through the they which may be taken not far from the opening point; an will be on in vigorous shape in the course of a few weeks. The weakness in the market was most pronounced on the common grades, the bulk of which sold about $567.59 flower. The good offerings were a little easier through sympathy, but they were too scarce to be quoted lower.

MULES—The mule market has been dull from the beginning of the week and the results have not been satisfactory to shippers. To begin with, a very light and uncertain demand existed, whose shortcoming was augmented by the large commission arrivals. Then, too, dealers received many carloads, which placed them still further in an indifferent mood, and made sales on the commission market extremely difficult. Sellers had to give concessions to move the offerings and a general decline of $2.50265 per head took place, which, in some instances, was even more. Neither the Eastern nor the Southern demand amounted to much, and the dealers were loth to take hold of the offerings. During nearly all the week the pens have contained large supplies and the movement has been dull. Dealers are now carrying larger supplies than they have had at any time in about two months. IN THE WHEAT MARKET. SUMMARY OF THE ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

TRADING IS LIGHT AND SEN-All conditions were reversed in yesterday's local grain market. Foreign advices were as bearish as they had been bullish on the previous day and the domestic outlook seemed to be favorable to the selling side. Speculators also were disappointed by the lack of outside buying interest. It was thought that the Wednesday advance would cause a big rush to get in, but commission-houses found themseives practically without orders yesterday morning. The few active traders were anxious to sell and the longs encouraged the downward movement by throwing large lines on the market in the hope of getting in at lower figures. Cables came weak at the opening and weather condi-tions in the European wheat-growing countries were said to be almost perfect. Clearances showed that there was little export demand. Local receipts were heavy and the movement to the Northwest was brisk. Other domestic markets were weak. Corn had no elements of strength. Receipts were heavy as compared with last year and crop reports were generally bearish. Trading was mainly in the hands of professionals, who freely sold. The greatest pressure was on September. The cash market was about steady.

Sept. wheat opened %c off and closed %@%c off.

Sept. corn opened ½c off and closed ic off. Sept. oats closed unchanged.

Receipts of produce were in fair volume and prices of fruits and vegetables were renerally steady Local securities were dull and irregular. Tractions were on the downturn.

Yesterday's bank clearings were $7,955,849, balances $567,965. Discount rates were steady between 5 and 6 per cent.

Spot cotton was unchanged in the local market.

DOMESTIC BEARISH NEWS DEPRESSES GRAIN VALUES.

FOREIGN MARKETS ARE ON THE DOWN TURN.

Sclling by Longs and Lack of Outside Speculative Interest

Cause a Break. In the absence of that class of foreign news which advanced prices on the previous day, bearish domestic information was effective and prices were sharply lower at the close. Cables came easy at the opening and weather conditions abroad were said to be ideal. The war scare did not appear as a factor in the market. Weather, both in the winter and spring belts, was favorable and receipts here and in the Northwest were again heavy. Export sales were light. The domestic demand for flour and cash wheat continued good.
